

Time for Rhymes

written by Laura Recio

Divinity

If I had superpowers I would change shells into diamonds petrol into gold the dumb into wiser the older into young I would fly as an angel as it's free and above Throw my rays into a meadow and see from a treasure a rainbow emerge

When my heart is with Him the art begins

The love flows while the flowers grow And the hearts glow when You blow the sound of silence to the world below

Connect the soul to the Source Spread the rays to the World Transform hell into Heaven Recreate Paradise on Earth Embibe virtues in the self Become Goddesses again
Every cycle repeats
The story is always the same
From happy to sad
From healthy to insane From wealthy to begging Until reaching Your lane

And then what comes next?
Reverse the story Become the best

From humans into deities With divine virtues in the self
The story is always the same

Acting with no regrets Being free with respect Remove the masks Become oneself

Little Star

Is it day or still night?
Enable me to discern what is wrong what is right You make me fly in the fight Face no war in Your light Hold me tight with the strings of Your peace and Your might You are a tower
You are the Source of all powers
You are my Saviour
You uplift my behaviour

Make me peaceful and calm

All the light in Your eyes shines like stars in Your mind

This is a play
We are all stars and the body is just clay

You are true magic You are a real dream You are music in silence and mute poetry

You are beauty in perfection
You are virtue and power
You are safety in freedom The seed and the water of us lotus flowers

You make virtues from vices Games from sacrifices Light from shadow A wide path from narrow Fortune from crisis Lions from mice You melt stones with love like a fire with ices

You speak to my soul
You see into my eye You take me beyond the consciousness of I and mine

You ask me to be Yours everyday with Your mind It takes effort to have sight from being blind

You clear up my confusion Remove the rainy clouds Show me the right path where life has no bounds

You sewed my broken wings
You dressed my soul You lit a path that was dark before

You are my drug and I am Your heroine In this world of darkness You make me shine within

Meditation
brings selftransformation

Peace is within Peace is a treasure Peace is invaluable Peace has no measure Peace hides in silence Peace is beyond violence Peace is in the soul For peace I learn to mould For peace I let anger go Peace is always new Peace never gets old Peace is the prize Peace is paid in gold

Sometimes it's a nightmare others a wonderful dream Stable in our original religion of purity, love and peace

These jewels are our fuel

Heart thrONE

My Love is from Above

Love from the Source is like an Ocean Love as a pond is from doing devotion Sometimes it's a dry well when it's from compulsion The difference of drinking nectar or poison

ONEart ONEarth ONEheart

Faith in the Intellect Love in the Heart Peace in the Soul

Rays of Love to raise the World

If there is no Love instead of a swan you become a stork So keep Divine Love burning in the heart So it never falls apart

The Purifier
removes me from the fire of lust and creates my empire through the power of True Love

If the intellect is the anchor and thoughts are the rope let it hang on to You and take my boat across

You are our Source of inspiration we heal merging into Your powerful vibrations

The Ocean of Love
bathes us in His waves Removes our attachments Let them go away Become free in the mind cleaning our hearts His Love is so pure that accepts everyone's part

I have attained everything I wanted to attain I renounce the waste
In front is my aim Be a bead of the rosary and have a crown in my head

Such elevated are our vows Worthy of making kings bow

I am a soul not my role I set my goal to see just flowers and not be pricked by thorns Become the queen of a kingdom and the empress of the World

Crown or drown

Claim a crown as the old world drowns While you are going up the rest are going down

It is now or never Never say never Let it be forever
The time is now Don't ask how Just become clever and remove the clouds

Everything we see will be transformed and we will go back Home in the remembrance of only One

We will take rebirth when Paradise is emerged The reward to rule forever depends on the effort made now or never

One vision
One mission

Coronavirus :

The darkness was endless with a stop sign I got used to running but I lost sight A new chapter unfolding before hidden to my eyes The cycle was ending No time for whys

Here came the virus with a crown on it's head Taking all home Take a rest in your bed Moments of reflection in a wandering life We were living forced to do just to survive

This stop sign has made us think what is important In what and in Whom we believe (continue)

People and things
Time to isolate Will this be a tragedy or will I end up with a crown instead?

All thrones are shaking
It can be fun!
This game of the drama Angels and bombs

Stocking and stocking
For the hell why When shop are empty Then shall all die?

Situations are a test Where you come to know Are they still good the ones you adored?
Who is your family?
Who really cares?
I will always keep giving even if others are not there

Mercy for for the self Being alone Connected with Him
The only One I belong

Open the gates
Make it Heaven again
That is why we are here
It's a test not to fear
Not lonely and far But close to Your heart

We are going to the Golden Age where there's no fire There's no rage Get out of the mind's cage Feel the power of the Diamond Stage

The cycle of time is ending It's time to go to Home Beyond sound to Nirvana in the Supreme Abode

Death is an illusion Life is a mirror So just let it wipe out to look through it clearer

In reality everything is an illusion

The reality is spirituality

In the essence of existence

Possessions and position are obsessions to delusion

Waste into best

I don't need to adore Just to bless Play as the queen winning the game of chess

I'm becoming simple to be a sample I have no leaders
I am my own example The Supreme Soul is my Star the One that I follow whom doesn't let me down when the path is getting narrow

I can have no body
I can have no name
I can be a cloud and I can also rain I can sow a seed and reap a lot of grain

There may be clouds
There may be nights But all the days are to come behind There may be clouds
even in the days With the virtue of patience they'll go away

So many nights
So many days
So many lights
One day will fade and after all shine once again

Don't chase a shadow Follow the right path even if it's steep and narrow

Music takes birth from silence Same as love from purity and peace from solitude

Everything takes birth from silence:
art, poetry, music, science, life, ... and specially the Truth What a rational mind cannot explain in a material world, the soul and the heart, filled with spiritual knowledge and deep meditation, are the guides to a higher reality And the Creator's existence is undeniable at that point

Faith is experience

Conquer science loving silence

Tomorrowland is the memorial of a new age History is turning it's page

The world will vibrate at a higher stage

Tomorrow a new day is coming as the old world comes to an end The land will become new as the elements bend There will be no humans Only divine beings instead

Tomorrow there is no sorrow Today I am full of Love That from the Divine I borrow given from above

Burn in the fire all the limited desires Turn them into flames until anything remains

The butterfly flew to the sky
She dissolved in the light Little by little went higher and high No body knew either she understood what was going on in her mind She burnt in the flame that Paradise will ignite An angel she became and constantly danced inside

You will never feel alone
You can find Me in my Home

It takes time to renounce the consciousness of I and mine It can take a second It can take a lifetime

Faith is my breath When the time is near hell disappears

I hold on to my faith in You so I don't die in fear I want to believe that the end is near Have the power to recreate Heaven here
You can make my dreams come true and finish my tears

Open the gates
Make it Heaven again
That is why we are here
Not lonely and far
But close to your heart

When You are near the path is clear

Real knowledge is to know the edge between truth and falsehood What is good and what is bad What is positive and what is negative What is uplifting and what is degrading What is virtue and what is vice What is creative and what is destructive Discern spiritual from material Eternal and unlimited from mortal and limited

The power of silence is higher than the power of science My mind goes across the universe to You as a magnet You make the love flow that was before stagnant

When the day becomes night and the world is gloomy I travel faster than light to connect You and me

Beyond name and form are the souls and the Supreme Soul in the real Home the incorporeal world

I choose silence and avoid violence

Live to die or die to live Bodiless to survive
Be a body to leave

Are you soil or soul?
Dust or gold?
Diamonds will emerge and everything will change while humans and deities converge

I'll never drown
I'll never burn I'll have a crown and a wonderful throne when all souls have come down from the Supreme Abode

My forehead is Your throne My heart is Your Home

No name and fame only peace and love

In am a Star by default

It seems sunrise and also dawn I see You coming and also gone At times I am useless and others gold I love everything in silence and have inside of me a party going on

We all feel love towards one another We are all angels of One Father

Loyalty is Royalty

Every time I choose You You bring me closer to Your Heart You guide my steps Never allow me to fall apart You are everything I have You are everything I want You fill the space with beauty Take me to the Highest on High where we can have unlimited power peace and love in unity

Remembrance from the heart brings back the pieces that were fallen apart

I don't want to struggle
Just be in my bubble In the canopy of protection that is free from aggression Not harming but charming Fulfill my aim with determination

Peace in the heart is the greatest piece of art

Peace and Love
invaluable jewels hard to find as they reside inside

To be free from disease get away from the old world and live at ease as the embodiment of Love and Peace

The end and the beginning compose the Confluence Age when Peace and Love have conquered lust and rage

We came to You with love and surrender You will give us in return pure feelings and splendour

There will be no annihilation Only world transformation Living in peace as one united nation

She didn't want to die alone
She didn't want to live forever She only wanted to fly back Home with You together

Beyond family and friends Beyond name and form
there is a role to play as an angel always beyond

To be a master of time and a conqueror of matter is a matter of time

This Drama is so unlimited and we are bound to live in it

Do whatever today, don't delay
So tomorrow
there will be no sorrow nor complain

All the fears and all the tears disappear when You are near

*

Heal spinning the chakra wheel

Some say "time is money" but my time is gold I will never stop running until I fit into the mould of the forest of honey and then go back Home

I would give you jewels and take your stones Take you to Heaven on this same Earth Take your poison and give you love Change you from beggar into a princess in one same birth

One point at The End Returning Home by the hand of my Best Friend

I wish to be an Alpha-Bet ignorant from vice Know only the soul and from Home to Paradise

My love is right or may be wrong I may get weak and then go strong Maya send me her devils to scare me and cry I faced death and anger to leave everything behind Your love is so strong as a tower of might Never let go of my hand I am ready to fly

Even being the last I would fly so fast Leave behind the past and come the first to fulfill my thirst

Be a master not a monster nor a disaster or diseased Just an actor who receives a role as high as Adam and Eve when Heaven is released

Meditation
stops the chattering mind and spreads loveful vibrations to all humankind

Clear up all memories to reach the roots of destiny

Noise to sound Sound to silence Silence to music

I don't want to fight just to fly I don't believe in violence but in the power of silence Stillness in the mind with no turbulence inside

I wish to be free from desires Own a silent mind a loveful heart and a peaceful life To be free feeling fulfilled and nothing left to achieve

I wish to be free from desires and would have reached the perfect end An entry door to a beautiful beginning

Every battle is won by remembering One

Life can put obstacles in between Life can pull us apart But my hope is for You to have always a place for Me in your heart

Have no fear what's unfair will disappear

You save my body
I reveal Your Soul Close my windows and open Your doors You take my mind and I give you all It's the greatest blessing belong to You alone

I beat my wings tied to Godly strings

This potion will make me fly and dip into the Ocean It will take my high away from commotion so I never die

Fly higher to never get tired

I took a pledge to take the World from darkness into the light Never fight
The Truth itself is might

Move from the cage into the Golden Age

follow flow fly

*

Weight is waste

Chain or change

All rights is alright

Jewels are for-give & for-getting

See through the real eye to realize

Open eyes meditation to make dreams a realization

Look within and see inside It's where the beauty resides

No criminal eye but divine vision to fly as an angel, not being in a dark prison

Today I had a vision
At the end I'll be free Be a flower in Your garden always together You and me I will die in Your recognition and become karmateet

Love or Die

Don't feel fright in the night Come into the day Your light will ignite

I drew the line of your fortune and you rubbed it off I painted a smile on your face and it fainted away I will hide Myself in your heart so with every heartbeat you remember My Love

Moving along the thin cord To think, hear and speak using the wisdom sword Moving beyond to the true core To be, do and keep You in my heart

Mind your soul

Your mind is a mine if your mind is Mine

From ignorant to teachers And enlightened from preachers

Be an instrument not an obstacle

From stones to stars

Be inside not insane

Not alone all & One

Again and again You tell me to transcend to remember only You to be number one at the end

Number One not numberwise

If you believe it you can achieve it

Don't follow others
Just One Father Or devilish sanskaras will bother to Angel EyeSee:

You are a star of peace
You are a star of light You've become an angel always flying high

You served all saying yes with love That's why you remain always high above

Angels always leave Angels stay together Angels change the world from worst into better

Angels free the souls Angels give respect Angels are peaceful and loving God is always with them

Rhymes emerge from silence Words come from Above Having the right connection they help to heal the World

You never come to Heaven
You never come to Hell Still You are the most powerful Soul from whom our kingdom we come to claim

Sometimes it feels like Heaven Sometimes it feels like Hell I'll imbibe the power of Purity right until the End

We change from caterpillars into butterflies speaking the truth and not telling lies

As is my dharma is my bhavna
As is my dharma is my karma
So becomes the drama

In the game of dolls there is no space for a goddess She is beyond with the power of knowledge

Souls can be dim Souls can be dull Souls can shine bright Can be weak or strong Can have a clean aura or be mixed with alloy

A life with pleasure and leisure with no pressure is a treasure

Little time remains Become true from fake No space for mistakes Be right in one take before the chance fades

Don't be like a goat Don't be like a cow Be like Kamdhenu that spills the Ganges through the mouth

We are about to face the third world war You can save a life or you can raise a bar You can be full of knowledge or you can be stuck in drugs Souls are numberwise My clock only is a heart

Intellect not locked, but linked

No fear, but faith

No hard work, but a heart world

Not careless, but careful & carefree

Don't complain, explain

Don't be bitter, be better

Don't fight, be might

Don't be wrong, be real

Be historical, not hysterical

Don't be vicious, be victorious

Don't spend, just spin

Don't harm, be in harmony

Enjoy, don't destroy

From hostility to hospitality

From satan to saint

From evil to alive

Devi from devil

vice into service

A perfect storm removes the thorns

Pay attention to self-transformation

From competition to cooperation

Always move forward Be brave not a coward

Allow to remove the alloy

Reflect respect

I wish my resource only came from the Source

My income is a kingdom

If I am pure
I will never be poor

Purity is security

Claim and gain to reign allround

Everyday is a Holy Day

Come to become

HEAd or HEArt ?

Live for Love Love for Life

In peace not in pieces

A vice in the stove becomes love

To be a heir first is care

Don't expect respect Give it instead

A mind can be a treasure
A mind can be a trash Be aware what you fill it with It's the energy that makes you act

You can care about the planet
You can pollute all of it's air Doesn't matter if you are rich or poor at the end it's always fair

Observe, serve and absorb

The Purifier is Pure Fire

I am a lotus flower & I own 8 powers

Princess in process Paradise in progress

Attitude to be in solitude to feel in altitude

Star were blinding in the ladder so steep while I was climbing

And I found myself minding if it's right to play the game and still look behind me

Don't see defects Be perfect with no regrets

We don't look at each other's eyes
We see each other through the eyes

What makes you love God?

Tiempo de Rimas

escrito por Laura Recio

La luz y la oscuridad La felicidad y el pesar Como la constante batalla entre la tierra y el mar A veces las olas barren las orillas suavemente A veces descomponen ciudades que duermen inconscientes

Como el agua busca el río y el río alcanza la mar mi alma solo ansía esa utopía llamada

¡Qué peor prisión que una errada conciencia!
¡Qué mayor libertad que ser sin deseos!

Echa raíces y virtudes no vicios y atáides

Abriendo puertas Allanando caminos Solo hay una Llave, un Guía
y un Destino

Tú eres mi Droga
y yo tu heroína En un mundo en sombras eres la Luz que me ilumina

En el silencio de la noche bajo la luz de la luna encontremos la calma como un desierto sin dunas

Volaremos más alto que las estrellas Brillaremos más fuerte que la luna Nuestro poder llegará a orillas donde no alcanza ola ninguna

Pensar, saber que hemos pasado por tantos cuerpos edades y nombres Sido mujeres y hombres ricos y pobres Soberanos y hermanos Deidades y humanos

Un día quise parar el tiempo a ver si otra vez vivía Esa rueda de la ilusión Otra vez al Tiempo perseguía Ése es el ladrón que me robaba los segundos día tras día

El tiempo vale oro
igual que tus pensamientos Recuerda cada instante es un diamante en lo eterno

Más allá de las palabras existe la experiencia Es la Divina ciencia que despierta la conciencia

Entre la razón y el corazón se encuentra la solución

El Amor supera barreras cruza fronteras
y conquista los miedos

Amor, paz y armonía son buena compañía

*

Como un árbol se comprende a toda la familia de la humanidad y representa la unidad

Sin Ti
se va la luz de mi alma se apaga
y me apego

Eres la Luz que da luz a la luz que emano

Cuando me confundo y hay miedo tiéndeme la mano

Desenreda mis pensamientos hasta que la tormenta haya pasado

Y me disuelvo en el viento cuando las heridas hayan curado

Su valor es más que el de los diamantes más que el del oro más puro más que todo el mundo entero más que las estrellas, el sol y la luna y más que juntas todas las fortunas porque hace retornar a todos a Uno

Contigo Recuerdo

Sin Ti todo es nada Sin Ti no hay sentido Sin Ti no hay sentimiento Sin Ti caigo en el olvido

El olvido de lo que fui El olvido de lo que volveré a ser El olvido que me quisiste por recordarte otra vez

Contigo siempre sueño
y se vislumbra mi destino Contigo el silencio alumbrará mil caminos

Contigo el aire es brisa e imagino infinitos lienzos dibujando la energía que inspiras a mis pensamientos

Con el Tiempo

Uno con el tiempo comprende que las cosas que pasaron tuvieron que suceder porque era la única manera de llegar al tiempo presente

Uno con el tiempo
aprende a valorar
y a dar las gracias

Después de esforzarse por avanzar hay un momento un instante en que uno debe parar y mirar atrás sonreír y agradecer para soltar

Porque nada es para siempre y todo es eterno

No es posible volver atrás ni aún con todo el conocimiento Nada puede cambiar
pues el drama ya es perfecto

Es posible volver a olvidar e ir más allá del ciclo del tiempo Lo imposible se hace posible avanzando sin perder aliento

Eres mi anestesia mental mi sueño más real Creas el Paraíso de un cementerio con el poder de la Verdad

Nos llamaste y a Ti vinimos por amor hasta el infinito Al final del cuento de nuevo nos unimos en Tus lazos dorados juntos para vivir morimos

Tan malo es amar a quien no se debe como querer morir si no se quiere

Tengo que parar sentir de nuevo la calma Que venga a mí la Luz y brille hasta el cielo mi alma

Ser una estrella una deidad una imagen
digna de adorar

Las estrellas te cobijan y la Tierra te acoge mientras tú brillas las tristezas se encogen

Morir sin conocimiento es como vivir con sufrimiento

El silencio de mi garganta atrona mi alma Absento de sonido Lleno de palabras

Sentada en silencio trasciendo a la calma y veo infinitos caminos futuros escritos en mis palmas

Entre todo y nada nadie y todos oscila el loto flotando en el lodo Sortea con su espada navegando marejadas de un lado a otro De un desierto en llamas a la isla del tesoro

A mi padre:

Padre hermano del alma hijo de mi Padre Eterno Por tu inteligencia y tu silencio te recuerdo

Que tu corazón generoso te llene de tesoros de nuevo Siempre en el mismo rol cada ciclo nos encontraremos

Si yo fuera marioneta
y los hilos mis pensamientos Quisiera que en mi mente me hagas danzar al compás del Universo

La humanidad es un rosario
y nosotras las borlas Danzaría en su hilo hasta el final de la historia

Y vi el mundo bajo mis pies Y no sabría decir si fue el miedo o el amor lo que me hizo volar

Sin duda la muerte y la locura me persiguieron como una sombra oscura y sin fin

Hasta saberme ser luz infinita

Y Tú eras mi única Luz Una luz que ilumina lo más tenebre cuando las esperanzas se disuelven en la confusión de las noches de insomnio

Y nunca sabré decir cómo acabé ahí así

Ni cómo llegué hasta aquí por Ti
y por mí (continúa)

¿Huyendo de algo?
¿Atraída por qué?
¿Es un sueño o una mentira?
¿Una pesadilla fruto de una mera ilusión que no ha de ser?

A veces es la magia de la existencia!

Es la vida misma

El respirar y saber conocer la Verdad

Y no todo lo demás

Que la vida es un sueño y los sueños, sueños son, en realidad

Todo es fácil y nada importa si recuerdo que sé volar

Se cómo Porque nací
soy, y seré siempre libre

Deshaciendo una vida entretejida de ilusiones

A veces la vida no la entiendo y me enredo en mis pensamientos y solo de Ti me sostengo cuando los pilares se derrumban en el mundo viejo

Para la sencillez hay que pasar por el caos para retornar al orden perfecto

La responsabilidad
es el precio de la libertad

La naturaleza de la belleza es la pureza

Ser sin vicios es el mejor servicio

Todo nace de una idea
de un punto ...
Es la existencia de la vida es la historia y el espacio Lo que confluye
y se transforma Es el todo y la nada Es música, ruido sonido y silencio La creatividad y el vacío Y todo nace de la nada ...

La Tierra del Silencio es donde yo me encuentro Donde lo verdadero de lo perecedero se hace eterno Donde mi cuerpo desaparece y yo no muero

Amo el Amor
Y mi mente te creó tan perfecto ...

Un ser perfecto no es de nadie ni de nada Lo abarca todo con su energía y lo unifica con una energía mágica que no se puede describir más que con la palabra Amor

Un espíritu de luz ilimitado y eterno

Un ser que pacifica y tranquiliza todo aquello que le alcanza con la mente

Es ese poder ...

Y al final del todo sólo quedas Tú

Quien nos creó y recreó en la eternidad del tiempo como reflejo de Tu espejo

Quien nos hizo tan perfectos sin serlo Sin saber serlo
Y serlo sin saberlo

Sin recordar quiénes éramos nos cuentas nuestra historia de amor y derrota ya derrumbados para elevarnos de nuevo

El reflejo de tu Amor nos unirá para comenzar todo de nuevo y volar más allá donde nadie ni nada nos podrá separar

Hasta volver a la Tierra para de nuevo perdernos hasta echarnos de menos y querernos reencontrar

Amo el AMOR
y a nadie ni nada más

Y el Amor exista en el todo Y todo sea eterno

Quien lo quiere lo crea

*

Eres un diamante:
siempre hacia adelante Eres un topacio:
nunca vas despacio Eres un rubí:
tus esfuerzos no tienen fin Eres una esmeralda: nunca das la espalda

*

Evolución hacia la perfección

Con precisión no hay presión

Parece mentira que todos vivamos en el mismo planeta Unos ricos, unos pobres unos con mansiones y yates otros renunciadores ascetas

Pocos reyes para demasiados humanos Muchas leyes y ninguna para elevarnos

La paz reinará el día que todos vivamos
como verdaderos hermanos

Un mundo nuevo amanece mientras se pone el mismo sol Un cambio de sistema Es una nueva era
La próxima civilización Basada en valores Hijos de un mismo Dios

El Amor de Dios es eterno y real

No es el que viene y va como las olas del mar

No es el océano Pacífico pero sus olas son de paz

No es el océano Índico pero es único
y diferente a los demás

No es el mar Mediterráneo pero nos inspira a meditar

No es el océano Atlántico pero el Atlantis recreará

Es el Océano de la paz, del amor y la felicidad

Que tus sueños siempre sean más grandes que tus sombras

Eres Música
y yo Tu instrumento Cuando mis palabras callan hablan mis pensamientos

Eres la Semilla del árbol del cual me alimento Y me siento en las raíces conquistando el tiempo

A tu lado el futuro ya no es oscuro y el frío es menos helado

Derrumbas los muros
y remiendas los puentes quebrados

Eres la coraza de cuando confrontan en mí la razón con el corazón

El alimento es Mi conocimiento La canción que en tus ojos brilla para iluminar el mundo y llevar el barco a la otra orilla

He visto un mundo sin llaves Sin puertas cerradas Hilados unidos por cuerdas doradas Confianza y silencio en un sistema libre donde la paz aflora
y existe siempre invisible

Silencio y calma en el Nirvana existimos como estrellas en conciencia del alma

Divinidad
